First day

Get to know Alma upon arrival

Let us discover where she was born in Celje, how she lived, and from where she ventured into the world. Find Alma's statue in front of the railway station and take a selfie with it.

Say hi to Alma at TIC Celje and get some worldly advice

Enter the Tourist Information Centre and get to know Alma interactively, let us visit the atrium of the Celje Youth Centre, a place of free ideas and socialising, where Alma's illustrated stories are on display on large-format.

Stay in the city of her birth

Choose a hotel room with a view of Alma's statue and Krek Square, from where she set off on her round-the-world journey in 1919. Perhaps you can even stay at the Alma apartment that is located in the very centre of the city, yet in a peaceful and green surroundings along the Savinja River.

Green tip

The centre of Celje and Laško can be easily explored on foot. Alma often walked the route between her hometown and her favourite hiking stop. She also took the train from Celje to Laško or from Laško to Celje with her hiking friends and especially with her guests from all over the world.

Be like Alma. Travel green!

*You can buy your train ticket at the Celje or Laško railway station.

Second day

Let us visit Alma at the Celje Regional Museum and her house in Pečovnik

In the morning, we can visit the museum and look at the exhibition with a treasure trove of objects from the journey of one of the greatest female travellers of all time. We can then take a short hike up 183 steps to the country house on the edge of city in Pečovnik, where she spent the last years of her life. You will enjoy this visit where you will be able to listen to the great expert on Alma's life and work.

Third day

Let us retrace Alma's hike in the hills

Take the easier route to the scenic Jožefov hrib hill or the route to the largest tree house in Slovenia above the City Park in Celje. If you decide to visit Alma's grave in Svetina, extend the route to the Celjska koča hotel, another popular destination of Alma's hikes in the local area. Let us choose our route and ask for more detailed instructions at the TIC in Celje's Glavni trg square.

Get a taste of the foreign places that were calling the great traveller

Enjoy a snack at Otoki Japanese restaurant in Celje. Treat yourself to an Ambitious Alma coffee at the Debela čebela café and KofeIn Park, or buy one as a gift and surprise a loved one.

Let us wave goodbye to Alma and plan our return

On your map, mark the places you have not visited yet and book the days for your next trips.
