First day

Let us take photos like Alma

Stop at the bridge over the Savinja River. Let us find the right place to experience the place Alma loved so much for the first time and take a photo in Alma's style.

Let us visit TIC Laško and get tips for our three-day visit

Browse through the wide selection of souvenirs from Laško and the surrounding area.

Stay in the place of her hiking destinations

Guess what she liked about Laško when she was a child, on holiday with her nanny.

Green tip

The centre of Celje and Laško can be easily explored on foot. Alma often walked the route between her hometown and her favourite hiking stop. She also took the train from Celje to Laško or from Laško to Celje with her hiking friends and especially with her guests from all over the world.

Second day

Let us take a train to Celje and visit Alma at her home or in her treasure trove of objects from her travels around the world

Take a morning trip to Alma's house in Pečovnik or enter the Celje Regional Museum and visit the Alma exhibition.

Check opening hours!

Get a taste of the foreign places that were calling the great traveller

Enjoy a snack at Otoki Japanese restaurant in Celje. Treat yourself to an Ambitious Alma coffee at KofeIn Park in Celje.

Explore Alma's Celje before returning to Laško

The afternoon will be spent in discovering Alma's favourite spots in her hometown.

We will find the best spots for ourselves and for our children. In the centre of Celje, the Tropical House or the Technopark are sure to impress them.

Third day

Let us retrace Alma's hike in the hills

Choose easier trails, such as St. Christopher on Strmca offering views of Laško (the Three Churches Trail), or go on a hiking tour to Hum (the Hum Trail), or a hiking trail to Trobni dol (the Slog to Log Trail). Let us pick our own trail and ask for more detailed instructions at the TIC.

Round off a day of hiking the way Alma would

Let us try goulash at her favourite spot near the railway station - the Hotel Špica, formerly known as Henke.

Let us wave goodbye to Alma and plan our return

On your map, mark the places you have not visited yet and book the days for your next trips.
